Amanda Saber (Churchill HS/MD) and Anna DePetris (BCC/MD) will be making their first visit as collegians, when Lafayette Leopards visits AU Eagles on Saturday and Georgetown Hoyas on Sunday. Amanda recently broke her nose and will be playing with a facemask.

Twin sister, Jenny Saber (Churchill HS/MD) is in town as well. Dickinson lost to Johns Hopkins on Wednesday, and they will play Mary Washington at 1pm on Saturday.

Saber clan will have to decide how to watch Amanda at AU and Jenny at Mary Washington at the same time on Saturday.

End of an era The Infante sisters will be playing their final game against each other on October 18, as UMD Terps host AU

Eagles at College Park. UMD Terps, Paula Infanta, arguably the best college player in the last decade, along with AU Eagles, Camilla Infante are seniors. AU Eagles, Denise will be the only Infante playing in 2007.

Johns Hopkins Blue Jays, Sophomore Emily Miller (Garden City, NY/Garden City), had both goals over Dickinson (5-7, 2-4). The Blue Jays are 7-1 in their last eight games after starting the season at 1-4.

Catholic U Cardinals, had their biggest win in the last few years over #1 Salisbury State.

USA Women, have taken a significant leap in the World standings. They finished in 6th place in the World Cup. Prior to the World Cup, they hovered around 11th and 12th place.

Their final record was 3 wins, 3 losses and 1 tie.

Amy Tran, USA goalkeeper, was named the Goalkeeper of the Tournament at the World Cup after helping the USA to its best world finish since 1994.

Coaching tip: Players have trouble looking up to receive passes as well as execute passing. 3 players in a triangle passing 2 balls will force the passer to look up to make sure that the person receiving the ball does not already have a ball in their possession. The ball has to be passed to a player that does not have a ball.
